ACTION TAKEN REPORT (2021-22)

• Significant Contributions Made by IQAC (2021-22):

1. Classes were organized in a hybrid mode during the 2021-22 academic session. In the odd semester, most of the classes were conducted in online mode, and most of the classes of the even semester were conducted in offline mode. Continuous arrangements were made for online and offline classes for all three semesters simultaneously.
2. Feedback was taken from the Semester IV and VI students. Information from students' feedback have been discussed in the IQAC meeting and Teachers' Council meeting. Feedback was also taken from teachers in the meeting of IQAC with the departments during this academic session.
3. The IQAC, in collaboration with the Departments, had organized Webinars / Lecture Series for the betterment of the quality of teachers and students during this academic period.
4. Mentor-Mentee Programme was organized by the Economics department. Students had presented their papers on various topics from their syllabus.
5. A One-Week Training Course on “MS Excel & SPSS” was organized in April, 2022, by the Geography Department for the teachers and office staffs of the college.
6. Five new classrooms have been made available in this session such that more number of offline classes can be incorporated and conducted smoothly from the academic session 2022-23.
