Regarding e-copies of the Grants Received (2021-22)

Since 2020-21 session, the entire academic system in India had been in disastrous situation due to corona pandemic. Like other states of India, the Government of West Bengal also engaging themselves to fight the pandemic and online classes has been continuing during last two academic sessions, 2020-21 and 2021-22. No specific grants except salary have been received either from both the Central and State Governments or from any non-governmental organizations during that period for the academic purposes (like research activities or endowments).
